

Key Points

Lord Let us Listen: Week One

By Rev. Jamie Butcher

February 25, 2024

- “Deep Listening Dinners” is a movement about creating space for sharing deep, personal stories in small groups.
- “Deep Listening” requires undivided attention, courage, and honesty while focusing on truly understanding others.
- Churches held “Deep Listening Talks” inviting speakers to share their stories and engaging the audience in respectful conversations about different perspectives.
- Listening is a form of justice, showing honor and love for the speaker, and fostering human connection.